

MEDIA ALERT:

Handsome Commercial Pilot Jake Pavelka Gets A Second Chance At Love In The Bachelor: On The Wings of Love
The Hit Romance Reality Series Returns January 2010 on Citytv

Hopeful romantic Jake Pavelka sets out to prove that nice guys don't always finish last in love. In his own bid for true love, Jake will get to choose from among 25 bachelorettes, when The Bachelor: On the Wings of Love premieres in January 2010 on Citytv. This will be the 14th edition of the hit romance reality series.

Ever since Jake, 31, shared a magical one-on-one date with Bachelorette Jillian Harris, millions of women have had their 'Top Gun' fantasies about him. A fan favorite for his reputation as an honest guy with an open heart – not to mention his good looks -- viewers were stunned when Jillian rejected Jake right before the hometown dates on last season's The Bachelorette. Jake's fairytale-like experience falling for Jillian made him confident that he can find the love of his life on The Bachelor. Now it's his time.

An accomplished pilot, Jake became an airline captain flight instructor at 23. On his days off, he has fun flying acrobatic planes, taking dance lessons and woodworking at the home he owns near Dallas. His parents have had a long and happy marriage, and it seems to run in the family, as Jake also has two happily married brothers – older brother Jason and younger brother Matt – and two nieces. Jake grew up in Denton, Texas and attended University of North Texas and Embry Engineering University for Aerospace Science.

Hosted by Chris Harrison, The Bachelor: On the Wings of Love is produced by Next Entertainment in association with Warner Horizon Television. Mike Fleiss and Martin Hilton are the executive producers.
